$35,000 DAMAGES ASKED BY BASTIN

FOR DESTRUCTION OF HIS TELEPHONE LINE NEAR HUBBLE LAST YEAR

A sensational $35,000 damage suit was filed in the Circuit Court here this week by attorneys for the Bastin Telephone Company, of Lancaster who charge the East Tennessee Telephone Company, the Cumberland Telephone Company and subsidiary companies with having cut down about a mile and a half of the Bastin Company's line near Hubble a year ago. Since then, indemnities have been brought by Hubble county grand jury charging certain young men of Tennessee with having performed the cutting at the instance of the East Tennessee, a competing company.

The suit is styled the Bastin Telephone Company against the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company, East Tennessee Telephone Company, Gainesboro Telephone Company, Southern Telegraph Association, W. C. Moore, Roland Hume, James N. Cox and J. H. Baker.

The petition avers that the individual defendants Cox and Hume employees of the first named corporation defendants "procured and hired the defendant W. C. Moore, Ernest Wallinger, Roland Chase, Herbert Carr and Rudolph Shifler to come from Tennessee to Kentucky and with the malicious purpose and design of interfering with plaintiffs' business and its service to the public, wrongfully, maliciously and unlawfully by themselves, their agents and employees cut in many places and destroyed in the night time, on the night of the 26th of April, and the early morning of the 21st of April 1910 about one and a half miles of telephone lines and wires belonging to the plaintiff and located in Lincoln county, Kentucky thereby destroying plaintiff's property and destroying its capacity to serve the public and to transact business, and causing the plaintiff to be put to great expense in repairing its line in said county and to lose the profits of its business and thereby interfering with and destroying its property and service to its damages and injury in the sum of $35,000.

The attorneys for the Bastin Telephone Company are R. H. Thompson, of Lancaster and Robert Hurd and Bennett Putney, of Danville.

$15,000 Damages Asked

MORE SUITS BEING FILED IN LINCOLN CIRCUIT COURT.

Another big damage suit was filed in the circuit court here this week when attorneys for W. S. Goode, a brakeman on the Cincinnati Southern railroad brought suit against that company for $15,000 for injuries alleged to have been sustained by Goode, while acting as brakeman for the defendant company at its yards at Ludlow. It is alleged that Goode was engaged in signaling in the yards when an engine backed down upon him, badly crushing his feet, heels, and legs. His attorneys are Hurd and Putney, of Danville.

Attorney J. N. Saunders filed suit for "Mrs." Mary Hanchman, a well known colored woman, for $100 against the Royal Benefit Society, the amount being insurance which it is alleged was carried by her husband Frank Hanchman, deceased, and which, it is claimed, the defendant company has so far failed to pay.

Suit for divorce on grounds of cruelty was filed by Attorney K. S. Alcorn of this city and C. C. Williams of Mt. Vernon on behalf of Minnie B. Alcorn against J. B. Alcorn, both of the West End.

HUSTONVILLE

There will be an ordaining of the newly elected officers at the Christian church next Sunday morning. Some special vocal and instrumental music will also be rendered.

Miss Allie Stagg has returned from Cincinnati, where she has been treated by a specialist for racial trouble.

Train disputing between Danville and Oakdale, beginning this week is being done by telephone.

The Albany Georgia base ball team with Milton McFerrin pitching defeated the Jacksonville, Fla., champions of the south at Jacksonville last week by a score of 8 to 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler attended to Danville Monday while McKee Ruffo and wife and friends attended to Lexington returning home for the day after a day's shopping in the capital of the blue grass.

Rev. W. H. Jones, of Ashtabula, who has been pastor of the Baptist church here for several years past has resigned. He has returned home to care for his father who is seriously ill. He made many friends here who regret his final decision to give up his pastoral work at this place.

Whisky I am told is being sold in this place on the sly and this has been going on for years. The parties are now spotted and evidence is accumulating, and just such a shaking up as will come to them at the next court, will do them for all time to come. Violators of the law never prosper for any length of time, so be ware.

The blood hounds were called to Monticello last week where they traced some miles from the robbed store and found the party with the goods on him.

The timber on about two thousand acres of land has been pledged to be brought here for shipment to Cincinnati provided we get a trolley line from here to Moreland. The right of way will be worked on in the near future and a stock company organized.

There was a big crowd in town Saturday and about 75 cattle on the market.

The numerous friends here of Mrs. Ruth Green of Lexington will be pained to learn of her falling and fracturing her arm.

The line up of the Hustonville ball team that defeated Danville high school last Saturday 20 to 0 is as follows viz:

Bunn 1st base, Hanson 2nd base, Nichols 3rd base, Little left field, Compton center, Barnett right, Wedde short stop. Wheat catcher, James Hall pitcher who pitched a shut out game with only one hit and struck out 18 of Danville's best batters. Danville's battery, Webb and Mummah. Wedde made one three base hit and one home run.

Rev. John Godbey of Sevence Hill, a classmate of the deceased divine, conducted the funeral services which were held Tuesday at the Highland Methodist church.

GEORGIA CHURCH WANTS REV. WALKER

LOCAL CHRISTIAN PASTOR RECEIVES FLATTERING CALL

TO SOUTH

Rev. D. M. Walker pastor of the Christian church, has received a very flattering call to the pastorate of the First Christian church of Valdosta, Ga. He will leave early next week to look over the field here with a view of accepting the call. Valdosta is a city of about 10,000 population in one of the richest sections of the Corn-cracker state, and the field is said to be very attractive one in addition to the larger salary which a more extended field offers.

While Mr. Walker's many friends here would regret exceedingly to lose him, many have felt for some time that his splendid oratorical abilities and aggressive work in the cause might at any time be reconstituted by a congregation which could offer him more than the local church can afford. Mr. Walker however has not made up his mind whether to accept the call or not and will not do so until he has thoroughly looked over the field.

Called to His Crown

REV. J. M. COOK PASSES AWAY AT HIGHLAND.

Rev. J. M. Cook one of the best known ministers of the Gospel in Lincoln county, passed away at his home in the Highland section, Monday after a long illness of cancer. He was 74 years of age. He is survived by his wife and several grown children. Rev. Cook was a superannuate Methodist minister, and had lived in Lincoln county for many years, where he was generally loved for his good work in the Master's vineyard.

The line up of the Hustonville ball team that defeated Danville high school last Saturday 20 to 0 is as follows viz:

AND BRODHEAD WOMAN IS PERAPS FATALLY HURT.

Mrs. James Owens of Brodhead was perhaps fatally hurt while out driving there last Sunday afternoon. The wind blew the lady's bonnet off and in trying to regain it she dropped the hood. Then tearing her horse would run away, she told her daughter to jump out. In jumping out the young lady struck the wheel and fell. Her mother becoming scared then jumped and striking her hip on a rock received the serious injury. Mrs. Owens is a large woman and being in middle life, her recovery is not thought probable by the attending physicians.

The subcommittee of the Democratic State Executive Committee having the matter in charge Wednesday elected Louisville as headquarters for committeemen who will look after the State primary. Henry Lawrence will have charge of the work. Congressman Ollie James and J. H. McCreary, candidates for Senator and Governor respectively, filed official notification of their intention to enter the primary, and sent checks in advance payment on their fees.

FIRST DEFEAT IN THREE YEARS FOR STANFORD

decision being mighty close at the plate for Coleman made a fine throw to Penny. The Umpire, however, gave the Normals the benefit of all the close decisions. Embry settled down and struck out the next two men retiring the side, but the game was over right then.

To make it safe our boys presented them with two more in the seventh, after holding them easily throughout the fifth and sixth. With one out, Embry passed Sharon to first, and he burglarized second. Cembra passed one to Joe Hill, who let it go through his hands to the ground. Sharon played off of second and drew a throw by Embry who shot the ball a foot or so out of the reach of Dozier. The sphere rolled on to center field and Sharon and Cembra came in home. Embry struck out the next two batters, after the damage was done.

It looked like there was going to be something doing in the seventh for one lad, when McCarty led off with a long fly midway to center and right, which both fielders started after and collided, letting the ball go to the ground, while McCarty skinned to second. Lutes tightened up, however, and Coleman flew out to left, Singleton to center and Penny to second and Hill died on the Keystone bag.

In the ninth, the Stanford lads got a little nervous, but not quite a large enough dose. After Dozier popped to short, McCarty drove a sizzler through second, and Coleman followed with a clean drive past first, sending Hill to second. Singleton flew out to third, but Penny followed with a corking single to right which drove McCarty home and sent Coleman to third. Hill tried hard, but the best he could do was a roller to Lutes and the game was over.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Circuit Judge.
HON. CHARLES A. HARDIN,
of Mercer County

Every once in a while somebody in Stanford receives a letter from Col. W. P. Walton, former editor of the Interior Journal, and now associate editor of the Lexington Herald. The recipients of such missives usually bring them to us to read, for we "set" his copy for many a year both by hand and on the linotype, and often we were the only man in the office who could read it. Which reminds us of a story he told on himself in the Herald the other day. A tramp printer hit Lexington and they put him on a machine to set some of Mr. Walton's editorials. The printer looked at it a while, turned it upside down and studied it then went to the foreman and said: "If I had a corner I might play this stuff, but I'm d—d if I can set it." At that we think Col. Walton's chirography is more legible than that of Editor Dasha Breckinridge of the Herald or of Knock Graham another leading Lexington newspaper man, and we have "set" them all in days gone by.

Ollie James gave Senator T. H. Foyn the scoring of his life when the former opened his campaign for United States Senator at Nicholasville Monday. If James has the goods on Paynter the latter had as well retire from the race for re-election to the senate it James misrepresented him. Paynter had better explain and do it mighty quick.

Our friend Senator Paynter refused to hold a joint debate with Ollie James on the grounds that it might hurt the democratic party in the state. Why in the world didn't be think of that when he spoke and voted in favor of the unspeakable Lorimoto?

PAYING FOR AN OFFICE

(Editorial in CourierJournal.)

Lincoln county has been paying a salary of $200 a year to its County treasurer but it will do no longer. The Fiscal Court a few days ago elected a man who agrees to pay the county $161 a year for the privilege of holding the office.

Two bank officials, representing rival banks, were the only candidates for the position when the court met to hold the election. Candidate No. 1 announced that he would be glad to fill the office without salary. No. 2 hastened to make the same proposition to the court, whereupon No. 1 said he would pay $100 a year for the office. This was met and he raised his bid to $160. No. 2 went him one dollar better, and as there was nothing more doing in the bidding line, the office was knocked down to No. 2 who will pay $302 for the honor and privilege of handling the county funds for the next two years. This amount the county will receive, and in addition will save $100 that it heretofore has been paying for the services of a treasurer during his two years' term. All of which, it is presumed, will be gratifying to the taxpayers.

The competition in this race, which resulted so satisfactorily to the Fiscal Court and the county in general was due, of course, to the fact that two banks wanted the custody of the county money and were willing to pay something thereto. The plan smacks somewhat of putting an office on the auction block but as the two candidates were able and willing to pay the freight and there was no other aspirant for the position it is not apparent that anyone was prejudiced or discriminated against thereto. In any event the taxpayers of Lincoln county who will be $702 to the good, are not likely to waste much time discussing the ethics of the transaction.

MORELAND

The Master service at the Methodist church Saturday night was a success. The children did credit to those who trained them. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens. The audience filled the house and made a good offering for missions.

Miss Annie Fishback, of Mt. Vernon has been visiting relatives here. Mr. C. K. McClure has a new clerk Mr. James Hall, of Hintonville.

The Sunbeam Mission Society of the Methodist church consisting of children and young people gave an Easter entertainment Sunday evening, although the weather was inclement most of the time and practice was greatly hindered, the exercises were almost perfect.

The program was well prepared and consisted of recitations, songs and drills. Throughout the service the beautiful sentiment of the resurrection was clearly brought out. The children were well trained by their efficient leader, Mrs. J. H. Purdon, assisted by Mrs. F. D. Palmer. Above and across the pulpit were numerous streamers of crepe paper from which extended large Easter bells. In front of the altar were palms and around the altar rail were evergreens and beautiful Easter lilies. The children clothed in white seemed kindred spirit to the pure white lilies. Miss Ada Dunn Pruitt rendered valuable service at the organ in training the children to sing and did credit as organist at the entertainment. Mrs. James Hanson and Miss Minelle Pruitt were the ushers and everyone received close attention from these two excellent young people. The remarks made by the pastor, Rev. F. D. Palmer were to the point and the collection which followed was good. The large audience gave close attention and order was perfect. We hope Mrs. Purdon and the Sunbeams will come again next Easter. Lesson IV.—Second Quarter, For April 23, 1911.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, II Kings xii, 4-15.
Memory Verse, 11—Golden Text, I Chron. xxix, 9—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Today we combine the story of Josiah, king of Judah, in last week's lesson and in this one. He began to reign in his seventh year and reigned forty years, doing right in the sight of the Lord, while Jehoiada, the priest, instructed him (verses 1-3), but he did not destroy idolatry in the land. Our last good king in Judah was Jehoshaphat, who was succeeded by his son Jehoram, the firstborn, who married a daughter of Ahab and did evil in the sight of the Lord and put to death his six brothers. He reigned only eight years and died a fearful death, as the prophet Elijah sent him word that he would. It is written of him that he departed without being buried (I Chron. xxii).

Jehoram (or Ahaziah), his youngest son, succeeded him, all his older brothers having been slain by the Syrians. He reigned only one year, and his mother, Athaliah, was his counselor to do wickedly (I Chron. xxi, 1-4). He was slain by Jehoiada, and when his mother knew that he was dead she at once proceeded to destroy all the seed royal of the house of Judah, but Jehosheba (or Jehoshebath), the wife of Jehoiada, the priest, and sister of Ahaziah, rescued the infant Joash and hid him and his nurse in the house of the Lord six years while Athaliah reigned over the land (II Kings xi, 1-13; I Chron. xxi, 10-12).

Last week's lesson told us how, in his seventh year, Jehoiada, the priest, arranged to have him brought forth, anointed, crowned and proclaimed king, and made a covenant between the Lord and the king and the people that they should be the Lord's people (xi, 12, 17). They broke down the house of Baal and his altars and jungles, slew the priest of Baal, and also the wicked queen mother Athaliah. So the people rejoiced and the city was quiet (xi, 18-20).

We must not confuse our good King Joash of Judah with another Joash, king of Israel, who began to reign over the ten tribes in the thirty-seventh year of the king of Judah's reign and who departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, the son of Nabat, who made Israel to sin (II Kings xi, 10-13). We have a key to the heart of today's lesson in the expression, "The house of the Lord," which occurs in our lesson verses just twelve times. If we include verse 16.

Inasmuch as the king spent the first six years of his life in some part of the house of the Lord under the care of the priest of the Lord it is the most suggestive phrase in our lesson, and the more so when we remember that the kings who reigned at Jerusalem were said to sit on the throne of the Lord as king (I Chron. xxix, 23). We cannot think of Israel as a nation without a tabernacle or temple as a dwelling place for Jehovah in their midst. One of the first commands to Moses after the deliverance from Egypt and the giving of the law at Sinai was, "Let them make me a sanctuary that I may dwell among them" (Ex. xxv, 8). When Cyrus, king of Persia, made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom that the Jews might return from Babylon he said that it was to build the house of the Lord God of Israel in Jerusalem (Ezra 1, 1-4). Ezekiel xli to xliii tells of the temple that is to be when they shall be gathered from all nations never to be pulled up or scattered any more.

When Israel was unnumbered it was the law that every one, rich and poor, should give a half shekel as atonement money as a ransom for his soul, and this money was to be used in the service of the Lord (Ex. xxx, 11-16). This is probably a part of the money referred to in verse 4 with which they were to repair the house of the Lord, for the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God and had bestowed the dedicated things upon Baal.

Joash instructed the priests and the Levites to go out unto the cities of Judah and gather of all Israel money to repair the house of the Lord from year to year, but this collecting business did not work any better than it does today, and after more than twenty years the work was not done (verses 4-8; II Chron. xxiv, 4-7).

Then Jehoiada, the priest, took a chest, with a hole in the lid, and set it beside the altar on the right side as one came into the house of the Lord, and they made proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem to bring in the offering that Moses had commanded, and thus they gathered money in abundance, and the work was perfected by them and the work was perfected by them and they set the house of God in his state and strengthened it (verses 9-14; II Chron. xxiv, 8-13).

I have personally tried the box at the door plan for thank offerings, for benefits received at the services, the money to be given to missions, to help tell the glad things to others, and it has worked splendidly. It is many a long year since I ever solicited money from any one personally or permitted any one to go collecting, and we find there is no need of it. The wickedness of Josiah, after the death of Jehoiada at the age of 130 years, and his murder of the son of Jehoiada and his idolatry are written in II Chron. xxiv, 15-27.

PREACHERSVILLE

Since the consolidation of the Preachersville school with Hobbs school there has been considerable talk concerning educational matters here. The general expression seems very agreeable to the new order of things. More than twenty years ago these two districts were one with a large enrollment of pupils and with a first class school, always obtaining the services of teachers who held a first-class certificate and were experienced and capable of conducting a school in a proper manner. Since the division of the district each school dwindled in attendance, and the enthusiasm, common on the part of teacher, patron and pupil, was sadly lacking. The facilities for obtaining even an ordinary education were so inadequate, that several of our best citizens in this section, were compelled to move to town in order to give their children the advantage of better schools.

With the increased enrollment of pupils, the Hobbs school building will not afford sufficient seating capacity this summer, while the new building in Preachersville is not central enough in location, being rather on one edge of the present district. Capt. Garland Singleton and Trustee L. M. Cross have the matter under their earnest consideration and no doubt the new building here will be moved to a central location in time for school the coming term.

We understand that our friend Mr. P. M. Anderson of STANFORD, has agreed to give a site on his farm, a short distance down the Stanford pike from this place, for the school building, provided that it shall be made a graded school and permanent.

Why not move the new Preachersville new school building to this site and get the benefit of its larger seating capacity for our fall term of school? Then all together for a graded school next year. We would have this much, ready-built, towards a graded school building, at Lincoln county's expense and the remainder needed could be easily and cheaply built.

This generous offer made by Mr. Anderson is very kind and reflects the esteem in which he holds our community of which he was formerly a citizen. The site offered is about the center of the district, and would be the center of a mighty good district for a graded school. It is an ideal location. Only a comparatively short distance from the Crab Orchard and Lancaster pike, which runs through our village, and yet far enough away from the disturbing influences which distract the attention of pupils from their studies. Stores or shops not close, and automobiles do not run this way very often.

Such a district would contain a sufficient amount of taxable property to easily maintain a graded school. It also contains a large number of public spirited citizens whose generosity would prompt them to use their efforts to secure the blessing of such a school to their neighbor's children even, had they no children of their own. This is a most opportune time for agitation of this most important question. Will our friends put their shoulder to the wheel and help all they can? If you can't help do not hinder.
